

PURPA ART GALLERY

OPENING ITS DOORS IN SEMINYAK

Purpa Fine Art Gallery offers a unique collection of contemporary art by both established and emerging artists.

Under the direction of I Nyoman Purpa, Purpa Fine Art Gallery opened its doors in 1970 at Jalan Raya Ubud, then moved to Jalan Monkey Forest in Ubud.

Purpa Fine Art Gallery has represented most of the artists, not only Indonesian artists but artists of all nationalities who are living in Bali or spend time here.

Some of the artists are now recognized worldwide such as Walter Spies, Antonio Blanco, Hans Snell, I Gusti Nyoman Lempad, Miguel Covarrubias, Arie Smit, Krijono and many others.

Today, I Nyoman Purpa's daughter, Ari Purpa, will continue this rich history and begin the next chapter of Purpa Fine Art Gallery.

In 2014, Purpa Fine Art Gallery opened a new Gallery at Jalan Mertanadi in Seminyak to organize exhibitions and increase their international visibility.

Purpa Fine Art Gallery is working with artists for the long term, assisting them through their careers by exhibiting their works at their galleries and placing them in prominent collections. Purpa Fine Art Gallery strives to present works by emerging and mid career artists that inspire, excite, and intrigue their diverse clientele.
